

A Practical Creed

God made us for life in heaven. (Click here to read more...)

The way to heaven is a life of faith and love. (Click here to read more...)

God guides us according to His plan for everything He sends into our lives. (Click here to read more...)

We are going to share heaven as a family where all of us are going to be richer for the holiness of each of us. (Click here to read more...)

Jesus was sent to teach the truth, to found the Church, and to accept the cross on which he taught and showed us love. (Click here to read more...)

The Eucharist is the meal we share to be God's family, and it is also God's way to show us again and again the love He showed us first on the cross. (Click here to read more...)

The rest of the life of Jesus was planned to show us that faith can conquer any adversity. (Click here to read more...)
