FAITH IS LIKE . . .

Along each of the following continuum lines, draw a circle to show which of the two words or phrases better describes the way you would complete each sentence. Then explain yourself.

1. I think faith is like work _____ play

---

---

2. When it comes to deciding what's important about life, faith is an obstacle _____ an advantage

---

---

3. I believe that the best way to share faith is by talking about it _____ living it

---

---

4. I think faith means acting somber _____ lighthearted

---

---

5. To live a rewarding life, I think faith is unnecessary _____ essential

---

---

6. I think faith is a gift _____ earned

---

---

Now answer the following questions for yourself:

◆ Do you think it is important to have faith? Why or why not?

---

---

◆ Do you have faith in yourself? Why or why not?

---

---

◆ Who has faith in you? Why?

---

---

◆ What is the one thing about your Christian faith that challenges you the most? Why?

---

---

◆ What is the one thing about your Christian faith that comforts you most? Why?

Whom Do You Trust?

Faith is built on trust. When you trust people, you have faith that they will tell the truth, that they will honor your relationship, that they will not betray you. Write about some of the people you trust.

1. Whom do you trust to help you take an honest look at yourself? Why?

2. Whom do you trust to share a personal problem? Why?

---

3. Whom do you trust with your deepest secrets? Why?

---

---

4. Whom do you trust for medical care? Why?

---

---

5. Who finds you trustworthy? Why?

---

---

The Apostles trusted and believed in Jesus. You can trust and believe in Jesus in the same way. Tell Jesus about yourself. Trust him with important matters and the not so important. Take notice of the care that Jesus returns to you.
