

Father of glory, reveal Your glory. May the eyes of their understanding be opened today, that they would arise to the hope of Your calling over their lives. Let them understand the riches of Your glory, Your inheritance in us, and the exceeding greatness of Your power toward us. Heavenly Father, I am asking for the spirit of revival to be loosed, that the message of the excellencies of Christ would be proclaimed, that we would truly see lives moved toward You in wholeheartedness.

I am praying that desire and longing—true passion—would be stirred. Turn hearts toward Your glorious Son. I'm asking now You awaken and stir us; restore identity back to us. Move hearts toward Your Son this hour. Wherever we go release the spirit of revelation, that we would see hearts turned toward Your Son.

Father, make Your Son glorious this hour; make Him known. We want the knowledge of God to spread. I'm asking that You give young adults supernatural encounters. Apprehend them and awaken them this hour with dreams and visions. I'm asking that You would move mightily. I lay hold of You for a great awakening of hearts. I want hearts stirred with longing; hearts stirred with desire. We want the Spirit of God; we want hearts revived and renewed in the Man, Jesus. Do not delay!

Father, we're in need! I'm asking now that You turn the disillusionment, the disconnectedness, and the bewilderment into fascination. Turn it into wonder and awe. We're asking You to come, to save, to move for the glory of Your name. Smash deception and demonic strongholds. Make known Your resurrecting power. Let the Son of Man arise in beauty. Proclaim the excellencies of Christ throughout this nation.

Holy Spirit, I'm asking now for Your aid in advancing the glory of Jesus. Eternal Father, say the word— let revelation run rampant through this land. Let there be a great awakening of hearts with fascination. Jesus, make Your excellencies known. Awaken hearts to Yourself. Amen.
