

PLACES TO GO

Heaven

Nobody is certain what heaven looks like. We do know, however, that it's a place so wonderful that, once there, we won't even notice our missing loved ones (including pets).

Purgatory

Purgatory is where Catholics must wait until they can be allowed into heaven. Purgatory is a boring, tedious, uncomfortable place, not unlike Hell, the Department of Motor Vehicles, or parochial school.

Hell

Nobody knows for certain what hell looks like. We do know that it consists of Catholics who have died in a state of mortal sin and dead non-Catholics.

Many famous people are in hell, and most of its residents are well-dressed, divorced, and they whine a lot.
