

Easter

is the way from here to the father, that Jesus opens in him to each of us.

Easter the imperishable life instead of death becomes man's horizon.

Easter is the un hoped for Good News. It is fantasy suddenly become real, the impossible overcome forever, the everlasting defeat of our death.

Our death has been crushed in Jesus.

This is Easter.

Eastern erases man's perennial illusion that he can build a perfect society on earth but powerless against death.

Easter is the unmasking of all ideologies.

No idea, no system, only God in's Jesus overcomes death.

In death freedom comes up against its worst enemy, liberation clashes with slavery is very hard, liberty encounters its oppressor.

Liberations adversary has been crushed in Jesus.

This is Easter!

What is this victory over our defeat?

What is this triumph?

What is the death Jesus overcomes for us?

This death is ours.

It is the self-destructive power dismantling the liberation our freedom has built so painfully.

Yes Easter is possibility beyond our powers, offered by the father in Jesus for boundless liberation.

Yes it is the father's voice in Jesus calling men to achieve through his Spirit of unity among themselves.

Who would believe it?

Easter is the power offered in the risen Christ to overcome iniquity with justice, division with peace, hypocrisy with love in truth.
