

The Peace of God

Jesus did not come to guarantee that conflict & violence would be completely eliminated from human life. He came to show us how to live and to promise us that if we accept the Love of God, he will dwell in us and bring us peace.

We will trust each other only when we can trust the creator. We can take the risk that others are out to do us good only when we are convinced in the depths of our souls the God is out to do us good.

The peace of God can exist in us even without peace in the world.
