

Closing prayers

Gracious God, so much has been given to us. We lack for nothing and yet yearn for so much. Continue to teach us to appreciate what has come to us as gifts and blessings. Keep urging and challenging us to share what we have. Help us to give generously and freely of our abundance. We offer thanks for all that has been given and pledge to share all our gifts with others. Amen