

O Christ Jesus, when all is darkness, and I feel my weakness and helplessness, give me the sense of your presence, your love, and your strength. Help me to have perfect trust in your protecting love and strengthening power, so that nothing may frighten or worry me, for living close to you, I shall see your hand, your purpose, your will through all things. -St Ignatius Loyola"