

Lord help us remember to step and take in the big picture. That your kingdom is not only beyond our efforts, it is even beyond our vision. We accomplish in our lifetime only a tiny fraction of your magnificent work. Nothing we do is complete, your kingdom always lies beyond us. No prayer, nothing we ever say is all that should be said. No confession brings perfection, no visit or time spent brings perfect wholeness. No project accomplishes your church's mission. No set of goals and objectives includes everything. Still Lord by your grace we plant seeds that will one day grow. We water seeds already planted by you, knowing they hold future promise that you have created. We lay foundations that will need developing long after we are gone. We provide the yeast that produces effects far beyond our capabilities. Lord we know we cannot do everything, and in that realizing there is a sense of liberation. We are free to do something and do it as well as we can. it may be incomplete, but it is a beginning, a step along the way- an opportunity for your grace to enter and do the rest. We may never see the end results, but we are not the master builder; Lord. You are, and we are your workers help us to be faithful and never despair and to true to you. help us to see the role it has been in your graciousness to bless us with, to be prophets of a future that is not our own. Amen

Prayer based on a reflection by Archbishop Oscar Romero

Lord help us remember to step and take in the big picture. That your kingdom is not only beyond our efforts, it is even beyond our vision. We accomplish in our lifetime only a tiny fraction of your magnificent work. Nothing we do is complete, your kingdom always lies beyond us. No prayer, nothing we ever say is all that should be said. No confession brings perfection, no visit or time spent brings perfect wholeness. No project accomplishes your church's mission. No set of goals and objectives includes everything. Still Lord by your grace we plant seeds that will one day grow. We water seeds already planted by you, knowing they hold future promise that you have created. We lay foundations that will need developing long after we are gone. We provide the yeast that produces effects far beyond our capabilities. Lord we know we cannot do everything, and in that realizing there is a sense of liberation. We are free to do something and do it as well as we can. it may be incomplete, but it is a beginning, a step along the way- an opportunity for your grace to enter and do the rest. We may never see the end results, but we are not the master builder; Lord. You are, and we are your workers help us to be faithful and never despair and to true to you. help us to see the role it has been in your graciousness to bless us with, to be prophets of a future that is not our own. Amen

Prayer based on a reflection by Archbishop Oscar Romero

Lord help us remember to step and take in the big picture. That your kingdom is not only beyond our efforts, it is even beyond our vision. We accomplish in our lifetime only a tiny fraction of your magnificent work. Nothing we do is complete, your kingdom always lies beyond us. No prayer, nothing we ever say is all that should be said. No confession brings perfection, no visit or time spent brings perfect wholeness. No project accomplishes your church's mission. No set of goals and objectives includes everything. Still Lord by your grace we plant seeds that will one day grow. We water seeds already planted by you, knowing they hold future promise that you have created. We lay foundations that will need developing long after we are gone. We provide the yeast that produces effects far beyond our capabilities. Lord we know we cannot do everything, and in that realizing there is a sense of liberation. We are free to do something and do it as well as we can. it may be incomplete, but it is a beginning, a step along the way- an opportunity for your grace to enter and do the rest. We may never see the end results, but we are not the master builder; Lord. You are, and we are your workers help us to be faithful and never despair and to true to you. help us to see the role it has been in your graciousness to bless us with, to be prophets of a future that is not our own. Amen

Prayer based on a reflection by Archbishop Oscar Romero