

Youth Ministry checklist

This is what i hope will happen for the teens that go through our youth ministry

They they will experience the love of God for them through people who they know and care about them and do so because they choose to that they will have a tangible experience of Christian community through the youth group & it's activities.

They will know that their sins are forgiven and that heaven is available to them through their personal relationship with Jesus Christ that we in the youth ministry have afforded them opportunities to experience and grow stronger in that they have been made familiar with and encouraged to follow the law of transcendent love as laid out by Jesus' two commandments to love God & their neighbor as themselves

That they will grow in their sense of self worth and esteem, as valuable sons and daughters of God

That they will have a heart for helping others in need, with a special compassion for those who suffer most. that their perspective of the
