

Married People . . .

---

How much do you know about a successful marriage relationship? Take this test and find out.

Happily Married People . . .

- |   |     |
|---|-----|
| 1. know that marriage changes a weak partner for the better               | T F |
| 2. will always keep alive the thrill that marked falling in love          | T F |
| 3. are always willing to sacrifice themselves for the sake of the other   | T F |
| 4. have common expectations about marriage                                | T F |
| 5. know that loving is more important than being loved                    | T F |
| 6. know that love is more important to a wife than it is to a husband     | T F |
| 7. respect each other's code of ethics                                    | T F |
| 8. know that love is simply "doing what comes naturally"                  | T F |
| 9. know that love is essentially a feeling beyond our control             | T F |
| 10. more often than not have happily married parents                      | T F |
| 11. are quite aware of their partner's major defects                      | T F |
| 12. know that the best time to marry is when you meet the person you love | T F |
| 13. know that a good marriage erases loneliness                           | T F |
| 14. understand one another without saying anything                        | T F |
| 15. know that weak marriages are strengthened by having children          | T F |
-