

A Fantasy Date

What would be your all-time best date? Get together with one other person from your team and have each of you create a fantasy date with a famous person. Use the questions below. When one of you have finished, reverse the roles and let the other person talk. If you have time left over, respond to each other's fantasy date with the half-finished sentences under the word FEEDBACK at the bottom. Now, get together with a partner and get started.

CONGRATULATIONS! You just won the National Dating Contest!

1. If you could have a date with any famous person—movie star, athlete, music artist, etc.—who would it be?
2. Where would you like to go on this date—any place in the world, sporting event, concert?
3. How would you get there—plane, limousine, boat, carriage?
4. How would you want to dress? And how about your date?
5. What about a special, romantic gift for this occasion: Flowers? Jewelry? Perfume / cologne? CD?
6. Surprise! A very, very famous person is on the phone to say hello and wish you well. Who would you like this person to be?
7. Suddenly, over the loud speaker, there is an announcement. Your favorite song is going to be played in honor of you and your date. What would you like for them to play?

FEEDBACK: Let your partner finish these two sentences:

1. If I could join you for a few minutes, I would like to meet you at ...
2. From the sound of your fantasy date, I would say that you would like ...
