

ONE IS THE LONELIEST NUMBER

Reflect on these questions by yourself or with your group.

- Q: If you are dating someone now, what do you think your closest friends would say about that person?
- Have you asked your friends' opinions about him or her? Why is that?

- Q: If you are dating someone now, how do you think your closest friends would say this person is affecting your relationship with God?

- Have you asked your friends' opinions about that person's influence on your relationship with God? Why is that?
- If you were your own best friend, what would you say about the spiritual influence of the person you're dating?
- What would you say about your spiritual influence on the person you're going out with?

- Q: Think about one of your close friendships for a moment. How does that relationship affect your relationship with God?

- Q: Can you think of one thing you could do in a dating relationship or friendship that would help you both grow closer to God?

- What would you have to gain by that?
- Would you have anything to lose?
