

Musical Hats

TOPIC: Family

SCRIPTURE: 1 Timothy 5:1-8

SUPPLIES: cassette player or CD player, cassette tape or CD of music, variety of hats (such as a man's dress hat, a farmer's cap, a dressy lady's hat, a child's cap, and a baseball cap)

Before the game, collect enough hats for everyone in the group minus one person.

Distribute hats to everyone except one person. Play some music. While the music is playing, the person without a hat should try to take a hat from someone who has one. As soon as someone else is without a hat, that person should try to take a hat from another person. Participants aren't allowed to hold onto their hats with their hands.

After a few moments, stop the music. When the music stops, whoever is without a hat is out of the game. Take one hat out of the game, and start the music again. Continue in this manner until only one hat is left. The last person left with a hat is the winner.

DISCUSSION

- What various "hats" do family members wear in your family?
- In your family, who plays the most different roles? Why?
- How can you work together to make your roles easier?
- How do you honor your parents?
- How can you become a better family member?
