

Family Traits

Our family background is an important factor determining who we are. Your group will learn a lot about you as they learn more about your family.

Complete the following sentences about your family and share them with group.

I FEEL LIKE MY PARENTS LOOK (OR LOOKED) UPON ME AS ...

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> a troublesome kid            | <input type="checkbox"/> a helpless baby |
| <input type="checkbox"/> a scapegoat                  | <input type="checkbox"/> glue            |
| <input type="checkbox"/> a security blanket           | <input type="checkbox"/> a capable adult |
| <input type="checkbox"/> their pride and joy          | <input type="checkbox"/> a liability     |
| <input type="checkbox"/> a disappointment             | <input type="checkbox"/> invisible       |
| <input type="checkbox"/> a wonderful person           | <input type="checkbox"/> good stock      |
| <input type="checkbox"/> a continuation of themselves | <input type="checkbox"/> the family name |

---

I FEEL LIKE MY PARENTS EXPECT (OR EXPECTED) ME TO BE ...

- |  |  |
|--|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> the next president                | <input type="checkbox"/> a doctor        |
| <input type="checkbox"/> an incredible success             | <input type="checkbox"/> a minister      |
| <input type="checkbox"/> completely obedient               | <input type="checkbox"/> just like them  |
| <input type="checkbox"/> the next Albert Einstein          | <input type="checkbox"/> perfect         |
| <input type="checkbox"/> a golden boy/girl                 | <input type="checkbox"/> a princess      |
| <input type="checkbox"/> independent                       | <input type="checkbox"/> self-sufficient |
| <input type="checkbox"/> a compensation for their failures |  |
| <input type="checkbox"/> whatever makes me happy           |  |