

BROTHER AND SISTER

This game is reminiscent of the "Newlywed Game," but instead of newlyweds, you use brother-and-sister couples. They must work together to score the highest number of points possible to win. The brother is sent out of the room and the sister answers a series of questions about her brother. She records her answers on large sheets of paper. When the brother returns, he sits in a chair with the sister standing behind him holding up her written answers. Matching answers score points for the couple. Repeat the process sending the sister out of the room. Then tally the scores and award the prizes. You will find that their answers will produce some hilarious moments.

Sample questions to the sister about her brother:

- What is the craziest thing your brother has ever done?
- What is his favorite food?
- What do you like most about your brother?
- Describe your brother using only one word.
- What is the meanest thing he has ever done to you?
- What is his favorite color?
- What does he spend most of his time thinking about?

- If you had one wish, what would you wish about your brother?

- What is his favorite TV show?

Sample questions to the brother about his sister:

- What does your sister spend most of her time doing?
- If you were your sister, what would you change about yourself first?
- About how many arguments do you have with her each week?
- Who obeys your mom and dad best, you or your sister?
- What animal is your sister most like?
- What is your sister's favorite subject?
- How often does she clean her room?
- How long does she usually talk on the phone?
- What did she do as a kid that got her in the most trouble?

You can vary this crowd breaker using other couples—friends, parent and child—by asking generic questions.
