

Though we don't see each other very much nor do we write to each other very much nor do we phone each other very much I always know that, at any time, I could call, write or see you and everything would be exactly the same
 You would understand everything I am saying and everything that I am thinking

Our friendship does not depend on being together
 It is deeper than that Our closeness is something inside of us that is always there ready to be shared with each other whenever the need arises

It is such a comfortable and warm feeling to know that we have such a lifetime friendship 🌿

*I am a different person, a better person because I know you.
 It seems you are so peaceful,
 so alive and giving.
 Your friendship,
 your life is a generous act of love.
 Your kindness caresses me,
 your caring helps and heals me,
 your growth inspires me.
 My world is warmer
 because you laugh and love in it.
 Wonderful Friend,
 May the Lord of our world
 give a soft sunlight to the fields of your life.*

John Powell, S.J.

“Never explain. Your friends do not need it and your enemies will not believe you anyway.”

The Saddest Words A Friend Can Hear: 'I'll Give You a Call'

Elbert Hubbard
 (1856-1915)
The Note Book

FRIENDSHIP . . . Keep a fair-sized cemetery in your back yard, in which to bury the faults of your friends.

A FRIEND . . . knows your weaknesses but shows you your strengths; feels your fears but fortifies your faith; sees your anxieties but frees your spirit; recognizes your disabilities but emphasizes your possibilities.

William Arthur Ward

“Would I be a friend if I didn't tell you the truth?”

I tried hard to fit in, but nothing worked. How can I find real friends?

“Thanks for Being a Friend!”

Friends are those rare people who ask how we are and then wait to
