

NOTED AND QUOTED ...

Through the ages, authors have written on the subject of friendship. After each of the following, indicate whether you agree or disagree and why:

"A friend is a person with whom I may be sincere. Before him, I may think aloud." (Ralph Waldo Emerson)

"Faithful friends are hard to find." (Richard Banfield)

"But of all plagues, good Heaven, Thy wrath can send. Save, save, oh save me from the candid friend!" (George Canning) . . .

"Never trust a friend who deserts you at a pinch." (Aesop)

"I have some friends, some honest friends, And honest friends are few. . ." (Robert W. Service)

"A friend should bear his friend's infirmities." (William Shakespeare)

"Friendship is a sheltering tree." (Samuel Taylor Coleridge)
