

BEING SALT FOR OTHERS

You are called to be salt and light in a world where many people are hungry and homeless. If the world were made up of 1000 people:

- 500 people would go to bed hungry each day.
- 600 people would live on the street or in run-down housing.
- 700 would not be able to read and write.

You cannot solve the problems of the whole world, but you can act on problems close to home. In the space provided, describe what you can do to be salt for people in need.

Need

1. People are hungry.

2. People are homeless.

3. People can't read.

Being Salt

1.

2.

3.

You can work for peace in your own home by treating each person with dignity and respect. Don't call other people names or fight over minor matters. When you have a disagreement, find a way to resolve the issue without fighting.

MAKING CONNECTIONS

Read the following passages from Scripture: Matthew 5:41, Matthew 21:28-32, Luke 16:19-31, Luke 17:7-10, and Luke 18:18-30. Based upon what you have read, describe how a follower of Jesus can be a servant today.

Describe an unjust situation that you might encounter in your daily life. What could you do to act as salt of the earth in this situation?

What is justice? What can you do in your own school, home, or community to promote justice?

If one part suffers, all the parts suffer with it; if one part is honored, all the parts share its joy.
