

LOVE IN YOUR CLASS

Two results of living the Law of Love are peace and harmony. How well is the Law of Love lived within your class?

Consider the following questions:

1. Do you know all the members of your class?
2. Is there someone who is always excluded?
3. Do your classmates have to conform to the ideas of a small group in the class in order to be accepted?
4. Do you go along with something just to be popular?
5. Does your class generally respect the school regulations?
6. Is your class aware of community and world problems?
7. Has anyone suggested a project to help those in need?
8. Do you respect the options of others by listening when someone else is talking?
9. Are you aware enough to notice if someone in your class is troubled and offer to help?
10. Do you seriously listen to ideas presented and try to apply them to your everyday life?
