My Child

I know you are worried about the way things are in the world. You are living in the world at a time when most people do not wish to be close to me and have no intention of following the way I created all my children to live.

Whenever humans break out on their own, and act selfishly they create chaos and misery.

In this life the way to live at peace is to stay close to Me and discover what I made you for.

When you are working towards this you will always have peace of mind; no matter how ugly things get, you will always have the joy of knowing that you are doing your part to make things better.

You are doing with me what you were made for and no one can take that away from you.

Rest in my joy & peace and love and pass it on to others who are looking for hope in a dark world.

Remember that I offer a peace the world cannot give, so pray and work that people will come to Me

I love you always, Jesus
