

I See You As ...

Over time, you learn many wonderful things about your group members. Eventually, you will be able to see ways they can serve God. Look over the list below and write down the names of the people in your group next to the task you can see them doing and enjoying. This activity will help you affirm the strengths of your group members and help each person see how others view their strengths. Take turns sharing your answers.

career guides for the homeless visitor of shut-ins greeter at mass
visitor of hospital patients Christian mentor
host family for unwed mothers disaster relief volunteer parking lot attendant helper for single-parent families children's Sunday school teacher blood drive coordinator grief support group Vacation Bible School teacher usher
banner-maker
small group leader Relig leader
youth chaperone
coach
prison ministry
crisis phone line counselor recovery ministry
addict support program
spiritual renewal

retreat director
special events team
junior high mentor
audiovisual assistant
nursery worker
photographer
video camera operator
meals-on-wheels driver
medical and dental advisor foreign missions
sports and recreation director outreach to minority groups newsletter layout specialist web site specialist intergenerational ministry director caregiver for children of divorce Habitat for Humanity church decoration team church office admin. assistant crisis pregnancy ctr. counselor mechanic
other_____