

■ NO ONE WILL EVER KNOW

Karla walks out of the store counting her change. She discovers that the cashier gave her an extra five-dollar bill by mistake. Karla can't decide whether to return the five dollars or to keep it.

- ▶ What would you do in Karla's situation?
- ▶ What if the store had shortchanged her in the past?
- ▶ What if the store was known for its high prices and practice of ripping customers off?
- ▶ What if she had been given a twenty-dollar bill instead?
- ▶ What if, just as Karla was getting in the car to leave, she saw the grocery checker standing outside, frantically looking around as though he had discovered his mistake.
