

Life Olympics

For each cone, list a gift that you possess. For each divider line down the road, list on top how you have used that gift and on the bottom a person who received that gift. For each hurdle, name things you struggle with that at times trip you up. Put your name in the street sign.

