

How I See Myself

Choose an object in the room which you can use to describe yourself. You might choose a lamp because you enjoy illuminating the truth, you might choose an electrical outlet because you like to empower people, or you might choose the coffee maker because you like to wake people up. Take turns going around the group explaining what you have chosen and why.

