

One of the greatest destroyers of peace is worry...we KNOW worry is a useless emotion yet we entertain it and give it power over our mind. Make a choice to turn your back on the enemy's tactic and refuse to worry. Bring your mind, heart and spirit to that secret place of peace, joy, love, light and freedom. It belongs to you as a child of God it is your birthright. Receive it all in thankfulness...and don't TURN back, just GIVE back! Bless those in your path in need of encouragement, love, or maybe even a gift that makes their lives easier. We only get one life on this earth and that one life should be lived one day at a time as though the last. Some things just are meant to be let go of, and others are meant to cherish and share.
