

Read Romans 12:2 and 1 Peter 2:9. Insert the letter from the following answers that most nearly expresses your thoughts and feelings into the sentences below.

- a) intensely b) mildly c) very little d) not at all

1. When I read these passages, I am ____ confused because I have difficulty knowing what the will of God is.
2. When I read these passages, I am ____ struck by how special I am to God.
3. When I read these passages, I am ____ struck by the difficulty I have in avoiding conformity to the world.
4. When I read these passages, I ____ desire to please God who has chosen me rather than those who would tempt me to do evil.

George Gallup, Jr. has written that the two reasons teens most frequently given to explain why they use alcohol and drugs are peer pressure and a desire to escape from the pressures of life.

- a) most of the time b) some of the time c) seldom d) never

1. I find in my life that I ____ want to be accepted and appreciated by everyone.
2. I am willing to be laughed at for my Christian beliefs ____ .
3. I feel that integrity and righteousness are more important than the approval of others ____ .
4. I choose my friends from those who will have a good influence on me ____ .
5. I think that Christians should blend in with others so that they can have some influence on non-Christians ____ .
6. I speak up for what I believe even when it's unpopular ____ .