

Inviting an Expert

Big Idea: Identify someone with a message teenagers need to hear

Supplies Needed: none

Age Level: high school

This simple idea can yield huge dividends for your teenagers. Ask everyone to sit in a circle and tackle the following three questions:

- What is one subject you would like to learn about?
- What questions would you ask about this topic if we had an expert here right now?
- What expert can we invite to speak to us? Or where could we find an expert?

In just a few minutes, your group could come up with a short list of people whom they would invite to speak on the chosen subject matter—or at least some ideas where you might be able to find this person. Invite your expert to speak to your group on the chosen topic, and encourage all of your teenagers to attend.
