

"If You Have Met Christ.."

Words are never enough!

*Under the light
of eternity things,
the daily trivia,
the daily frustrations,
fall away.*

*Its all a matter
of getting to the center of the beam.*

God Is Really Waiting for Us

God never goes to the lazy or the idle when He needs men (or women, for His service. He goes to those who are already at work -- the busy person.

Moses was busy with his flock at Horeb.

Gideon was busy threshing wheat by the winepress.

Saul was busy searching for his father's lost beasts.

David was busy caring for his father's sheep.

Elisha was busy plowing with twelve yoke of oxen

Nehemiah was busy bearing the king's winecup.

Amos was busy following the flock and raising sycamore fruit.

Peter and Andrew were busy casting a net into the sea.

James and John were busy mending their nets.

Matthew was busy collecting customs.

Saul was busy persecuting the friends of Jesus.

I think we should all treat each other like Christians. I will not, however, be responsible for the consequences.

act as Christ would act

Just as the shore meets the Sea and the time and the timeless meet, so will a man meet with his God

How to Love God

To love God in the most practical way is to love our fellow beings. If we feel for others in the same way as we feel for our own dear ones, we love God.

If, instead of seeing faults in others, we look within ourselves, we are loving God.

If, instead of robbing others to help ourselves, we rob ourselves to help others, we are loving God.

If we suffer in the sufferings of others and feel happy in the happiness of others, we are loving God.

If, instead of worrying over our own misfortunes, we think ourselves more fortunate than many many others, we are loving God.

If we endure our lot with patience and contentment, accepting it as His Will, we are loving God.

If we understand and feel that the greatest act of devotion and worship to God is not to hurt or harm any of His beings, we are loving God.

To love God as He ought to be loved, we must live for God and die for God, knowing that the goal of life is to Love God, and find Him as our own self.
