

meal Jesus left as a gift and a command, commit you to give thanks to God and to give praise for the wondrous gift of Jesus.

The way you will offer fitting “thanks and praise” is by promising to serve one another and the world in the same way that Jesus served—and continues to serve—you!

Questions

- ◆ What about Eucharist is like a family celebration?
- ◆ What is the name of the “family” with whom you celebrate Eucharist?
- ◆ Why does the Eucharist remember and celebrate both the Last Supper and Jesus’ death and resurrection?

Read and React

Read the following paragraph. Then, complete each of the items on the list. It will help you the very next time you go to Mass.

The Eucharist has much to give you. At the same time, the Eucharist asks much from you. If you really want to celebrate, you have to bring something to celebrate. Decide what you can bring to celebrate at Eucharist. Decide what you can do to make each moment of the Eucharist a good and gracious celebration for you and for the people with whom you worship.

1. When we Gather for Eucharist, I can:

2. To help Share the Story of Jesus at Eucharist, I will:

3. At Eucharist, I will Remember:

4. At Eucharist, I will Give Thanks for:

5. At Eucharist, I will Share:

6. Because of what I do at Eucharist, I Promise:
