

WHY WAIT?

Reflect on these questions.

- Q: Have you decided what you will and won't do sexually in a relationship?
- How did you develop those beliefs?

- Q: Have your current convictions been tested?
- How did you resolve that challenge?

- Q: What do you think, if anything, it would take to change your convictions?

- Q: Is there anybody else who knows about some of your decisions about sex?
- How can you remain accountable to that person for the decisions you've made?
