

■ IT'S A LONG WALK HOME

Phil says he isn't drunk and that he can drive Troy home with no problem. Troy knows better. He saw how much Phil had to drink and thinks to himself, I should never have come to this party.

It is late at night. If Troy calls his parents for a ride, it may be the end of his friendship with Phil. Besides, his parents will tell Phil's parents. Since they attend the same church, Troy doesn't want that to happen. Troy considers driving Phil's car even though he doesn't have a license.
