

What Would You Do?

Directions: Write one way you would handle each of the following incidents. Then circle one of the incidents that you would be willing to share with your small group.

1. Your friend borrowed your history notebook without asking and lost it.
2. Your parents will not let you go to a party.
3. You have been told that your friend is gossiping about you.
4. Your friend breaks a date because he or she is busy for the evening. Then you see him or her at the movies.
5. Your friend tells a story that casts one of your parents in a bad light.
6. Your mom or dad shows up at a party and announces to all that you have missed your curfew.
