

The teen commandments

- Don't let your parents down—they brought you up.

- Be humble enough to obey—

you'll be giving orders too some day.

- Stop and think before you drink.

- At the first moment turn away from unclean thinking.

- Don't show off when driving.

- Choose a date who would make a good mate.

- Go to church faithfully.

- Avoid following the crowd—be an engine, not a caboose.

- Choose companions carefully.

- Keep the Ten Commandments
