

WHEN YOU FIGHT; WHEN DO YOU SWITCH?

	You have made plans for a night out with friends. Your Mom asks you to baby-sit. Do you?	You've finally saved enough for your favorite group's new album. Your brother asks you to chip in for an anniversary gift for your parents. Do you chip in?	Your sister/brother always wrecks your clothes. Now she/he wants to borrow your favorite sweater. Do you let her/him?	Your favorite TV show is on and your Mom could use some help with dinner. Do you help?	Your bowling average is an embarrassing 64. A friend begs you to go bowling. Do you go?	You want to go to the school dance. Your dateless cousin wants you to go to a movie. Do you go with her/him?	You have tons of homework to do. The rest of the kids on the play cast ask you to join them for a pizza. Do you?
