

100 Days ...

Uh-oh. Your journeys to the exotic jungles of central Serenesia have left you feeling a bit funky. It seems you have become the unwilling host of a nasty micro-organism. Your doctor gives you the bad news. You have 100 days left to live. Yikes!

Now what? What are you going to do? Imagine that you are faced with such an awful prognosis. Answer the questions below and take turns sharing your answers with the group.

What are some things you would like to do in the next 100 days?

Which relationships would you like to "patch up" or improve in the next 100 days?

How will you live your life differently in the next 100 days?

What kind of plans will you make regarding your funeral?

How would the prognosis affect your faith in God?
