

Suggested True-False Questions for Pre-Test and Post-Test

- | T | F | |
|-----|-----|---|
| ___ | ___ | 1. Anyone who commits suicide has to be crazy. |
| ___ | ___ | 2. People who talk about suicide won't do it. |
| ___ | ___ | 3. Because more boys commit suicide, girls don't need the help. |
| ___ | ___ | 4. If someone has decided to commit suicide, there's nothing anyone can do to change the situation. |
| ___ | ___ | 5. There's no way to know if someone is considering suicide. Potential suicides usually keep their plans secret. |
| ___ | ___ | 6. Rich people are more likely to kill themselves than are poor people. |
| ___ | ___ | 7. Experts know of several things which are sure to drive young people to suicide. |
| ___ | ___ | 8. Depression is not associated with suicide. |
| ___ | ___ | 9. Someone who abuses drugs or alcohol has already found a way to deal with frustration and problems and won't be likely to commit suicide. |
| ___ | ___ | 10. After a suicide, most of the person's friends will feel relieved and calm. |

(All are False)

Suggested Activity to Promote Discussion

Silence of the Heart is obviously a play which deals with emotions. List the emotions which we see in the film.

(Suggested List)

1. Frustration
2. Irritation
3. Anxiety
4. Relief
5. Satisfaction
6. Disappointment
7. Anger
8. _____
9. _____
10. _____

After the students have generated a list of emotions, complete the following chart allowing time for discussion of incidents, scenes, behaviors, or dialogue through which the emotion was expressed.