► List of “Sample Circle Questions” below

E The goal of this activity is to introduce positive values to a group by prompting players to share something meaningful about themselves, meet new people, listen to stories, and build trusting relationships.

GAME Split the group in half and direct players to form two circles, one inside the other. Have the inner circle turn to face the outer circle and introduce themselves to their partner. Ask players to share with their partners answers to the questions you ask. Give a 1-minute time limit, signaling when the other person may share. Partners rotate in opposite directions, make new introductions, and discuss the next question.
