

Influences on Values

This activity is designed to help you understand what choosing freely really means. For each triangle section, fill in what each group is asking you to value. For the center section, between the two triangles, fill in what you choose freely to value from each group. The completed activity shows what demands are being made on your values and what you are choosing for yourself to value.

