

PATTERNS OF VIOLENCE

The perpetrators have been young, white males, typically depressed

SHOOTERS/SUSPECTS

Barry Loukaitis, 14

Luke Woodham, 16

Michael Carneal, 14

WHERE/WHEN

Moses Lake, Wash.
2 p.m., Feb. 2, 1996

Pearl, Miss.
8:10 a.m., Oct. 1, 1997

West Paducah, Ky.
7:30 a.m., Dec. 1, 1997

VICTIMS

1 teacher and 2 students killed, 1 student wounded

2 students killed, 7 wounded,
mother stabbed to death

3 students killed, 5 wounded

WEAPONS/SOURCE

.30-.30-cal. rifle; home

.30-.30-cal. rifle; home

.22-cal. Ruger pistol;
stolen from neighbor's father

SCHOOL/SIZE/SECURITY

Frontier Junior High, 600
students, no security guard

Pearl High School, 1,000
students, no security guard

Heath High School, 600
students, no security guard

FAMILY SITUATION

Suicidal mother was planning to divorce father

Father left family when Luke was 11

Both parents at home, smart older sister

MENTAL HEALTH

Severe depression;
inferiority complex

Erratic coping skills; lack of empathy; sensitive to insults

Depressed; erratic fears;
pleaded guilty and mentally ill

CULTURAL INFLUENCES

Movie: Natural Born Killers; book: Stephen King's Rage

Music: Marilyn Manson; heroes: Hitler and Nietzsche

Movie: Basketball Diaries; video games: Doom, Quake

POSSIBLE MOTIVES

Was teased by jock (one of the victims)

Girlfriend broke up with him, called pudgy and gay

Called gay in school paper,
had a crush on a female victim

WHERE THEY ARE NOW

Clallam Bay Corrections Center,
serving 2 life sentences

Mississippi State Penitentiary,
serving 3 life sentences

Daviess County Juvenile Detention Center, life sentence