

36 WAYS

YOU CAN LOVE YOUR KIDS

1. Go to their school events.
2. Visit them at lunch.
3. Invite a student to breakfast or dinner.
4. Invite their family over for dinner.
5. Invite them and their friends to do something with you.
6. Send them an email.
7. Send them a greeting card.
8. Remember their important events.
9. Remember their names.
10. Remember what they said.
11. Maintain eye contact with them.
12. Listen to them.
13. Be interested in them.
14. Ask their views on things.
15. Find something to appreciate in them.
16. Offer to help them with a struggle or challenge (then do it).
17. Pray with them.
18. Tutor them.
19. Ask for their help.
20. Ask how their week went.
21. Give them public credit for a job well done.
22. Brag to their parents about them.
23. Give them real responsibilities.
24. Give them room to fail.
25. Give them the tools to succeed.
26. Say, "I love you."
27. Be honest.
28. Be vulnerable before you ask them to be vulnerable.
29. Sit by them.
30. Smile kindly.
31. Be excited to see them.
32. Give them the truth.
33. Play with them.
34. Work with them.
35. Open your home to them.
36. Invite them to minister to you.

36 WAYS

YOU CAN LOVE YOUR KIDS

1. Go to their school events.
2. Visit them at lunch.
3. Invite a student to breakfast or dinner.
4. Invite their family over for dinner.
5. Invite them and their friends to do something with you.
6. Send them an email.
7. Send them a greeting card.
8. Remember their important events.
9. Remember their names.
10. Remember what they said.
11. Maintain eye contact with them.
12. Listen to them.
13. Be interested in them.
14. Ask their views on things.
15. Find something to appreciate in them.
16. Offer to help them with a struggle or challenge (then do it).
17. Pray with them.
18. Tutor them.
19. Ask for their help.
20. Ask how their week went.
21. Give them public credit for a job well done.
22. Brag to their parents about them.
23. Give them real responsibilities.
24. Give them room to fail.
25. Give them the tools to succeed.
26. Say, "I love you."
27. Be honest.
28. Be vulnerable before you ask them to be vulnerable.
29. Sit by them.
30. Smile kindly.
31. Be excited to see them.
32. Give them the truth.
33. Play with them.
34. Work with them.
35. Open your home to them.
36. Invite them to minister to you.