

Birthday Shuffle

Have everyone sit in a circle with the same number of chairs as there are people. "It" stands in the center, without a chair. They call out any number of months of the year. After the last month is called, everyone who has a birthday during one of those months gets up and tries to take another seat. "It" also tries to find a vacant seat. Whoever is left without a seat becomes "It."

