

BLESSING CARDS

---

Go to an antique or thrift store and buy old, worn, or vintage playing cards. Then challenge your teenagers to each think of a blessing in their life and write the blessing on the card face. At the end, they'll each have a deck of 52 blessings in their lives. For the dark days ahead of them, these are a great, portable reminder of the ways they've been blessed.