

Charades

Place a name tag (Little Red Riding Hood, Goliath, Romeo or Juliet, Dallas Cowboy Cheerleader, John Wayne, etc.) on the back of each person in a group of up to 8. First person stands and turns around so the others in the group can see the tag. Then, in silence, the group members act out this person until the one with the name tag guesses who they are. When that person guesses correctly, the next person stands and turns around. The group acts out this person ... etc. until everyone in the group has guessed.
