

Counselor Carry Relay

Here is an old relay with a new twist. Each group has to carry their leader or a counselor to the other end of the room and back. Blindfold the kids and have their leader guide them verbally. The first group to complete the distance wins.

