

Hands

Form a circle with everyone's hands stretched toward the center. Then with each hand grab someone else's (making sure not to hold both hands of the same person or the person next to you). After everyone is connected—untangle! Be careful not to let go of anybody's hands. Don't give up; it is possible! After you untangle, try it again without talking.

