

NEW-FASHIONED BOX SOCIAL

This is just like the Old-Fashioned Box Social except that in this case the guys pack the box lunches for two, and the girls bid for them. With the right encouragement, some guys will go all out and bring fancy dishes, table cloths, candles, soft music, and so on. The girls can bring canned food (later to be given to a needy organization or family) and bid on the lunches using the cans as money. The cans are worth the prices marked on them.
