

OUT-OF-EGYPT OLYMPICS

For this wacky theme event, first name each team after one of Israel's 12 tribes (though there are 13 names—remember?).

- People Pyramids. Build a pyramid using only people who fit certain criteria. For instance, call out, "Use seven people with white socks" or "...with birthdays in the summer" or "...with long hair."
- Leap Frog. Relay teams race leap-frog style in memory of the frog plague.
- Mummy Making. Each team selects a victim to be wrapped in toilet paper until no part of the victim is showing.
- Bug Bobbing. Let a tray of red punch represent the Red Sea—then dump in a bag of Gummi Bugs. In this relay players must run up to the tray, bob for a bug, and return to their teams.
- Horse Racing. Riding piggyback on blindfolded Egyptian "horses," players coach their mounts through a sea of water balloons.
- Speed-Eating Egyptian Treats. The Israelites were always complaining about the food they left behind in Egypt. Let three volunteers from each team try to
