

PIE-EATING

It's old, but it's still one of the best fun things around. Have a race in which teens devour cream pies with no hands. Put a time limit on it and give prizes for the most cream pie eaten, the messiest face the nearest eater, etc.

PING-PONG BALL RACE

Ping ball and a party horn to it. Players push the ball on the horns. They can touch it in any way they wish. The first player to cross the finish line is the winner.
