

SCRIPTURE SCRAMBLE

This is a creative way to form groups of two or more.

Give each person a Bible and a scripture passage on a piece of paper. Give matching scriptures to other people in the room, with the number depending on how big you need your groups to be. (Make sure teenagers don't share which Scripture they have.)

Have everyone spread out and then start reading their Scripture out loud and over and over while walking around the room. When two people realize they're reading the same passage, they sit on the floor (or if you're forming groups larger than two, they should
